

Literacy

Weekend news- continue to write about some of the exciting things you have been doing at home! Continue to add detail and check punctuation.

-There are no new spellings. For this week and next week, begin to look over the different sounds your child has learned this year, using their spelling folder. Revise as many sounds as your child is able to- take it at their pace. If you have any queries or questions regarding how best to do this, please feel free to contact me. Lchapman832@c2kni.net

-Adjectives- this week your child will be revising what an 'adjective' is. Use the Bitesize video link to recap and then complete the activities.

-Topic work- For this week, your child should complete an acrostic poem on the 'Seaside.' Use each letter of the word 'Seaside' to think of a sentence related to the seaside/beach. I have attached examples to help.

-Your child could also complete a review of their year in Primary 3&4. It hasn't been the year we expected but they could recall their favourite parts before we finished prematurely.

-Handwriting - try to finish off the booklet over the next two weeks.
