

Literacy

Weekend news- for the last time, write about some of the exciting things you have been doing at home! Continue to add detail and check punctuation.

-There are no new spellings. For this week, continue to look over the different sounds your child has learned this year, using their spelling folder. Revise as many sounds as your child is able to- take it at their pace. If you have any queries or questions regarding how best to do this, please feel free to contact me. Lchapman832@c2kni.net

-End of year booklet- Normally at the end of the year, the class completes a review of the year. This is added to their 'Record of Achievement' folder to be returned in P7. Complete the booklet and keep it safe!

-Read the instructions for making 'No-churn ice-cream'. If you have the time, send me some pictures of you enjoying the delicious treat.

-Handwriting - try to finish off the booklet.
